Cynthia Rubino, who joined Pace University in April 1999, was appointed Vice President for Government and Community Relations on January 15, 2001. In this role Ms. Rubino is responsible for advancing the University’s legislative agenda and promoting economic development opportunities. She serves as the liaison to the communities in which Pace University has a presence.

Prior to the appointment, Ms. Rubino was the Village Administrator of Tarrytown, NY. In this capacity, her responsibility as the Chief Administrative Officer of the community included: supervision of the police, public works, highway, building, village clerk and volunteer fire departments. The Village Board and Planning Board activities were also part of her day-to-day administrative duties. She was the budget officer overseeing a $12.5 M budget, grant fund programs, moderate income housing programs and served as the Village’s environmental review officer.

Ms. Rubino received her Masters in Public Administration from Pace University and a Bachelor of Science degree from Mercy College in Dobbs Ferry, NY.
