The Bronx Early College Academy
2332 Independence Avenue, Riverdale, NY 10463

TEACHERS NEEDED
FOR SEPTEMBER 2006

The Bronx Early College Academy (BECA) is a 6th-12th grade program designed for students to earn up to two years of college credits prior to high school graduation. BECA is an NYC Department of Education school in Region 1 that is supported by CUNY’s Early College Initiative, CUNY’s Teacher Academy, Lehman College, and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. College orientation starts in the 6th grade, Regents courses in the 8th, college courses in the 9th and becoming progressively dominant in the upper years. The school’s mission is to serve and place on a college track at-risk students in the Bronx whose prospects for college education ranges from possible, to uncertain, to doubtful.

We are looking for NYS and NYC certified teachers in the following areas to teach the school’s initial cohort of 6th graders:

Secondary English Language Arts/Reading
Secondary Mathematics
Secondary Social Studies
Secondary Science

We prefer candidates with the above certifications to have dual or extension licenses in any of the following:

Common Branch
ESL
Music
Art
Physical Education
Special Education
