Pace’s Part-Time MBA 20th Nationwide
EXCLUSIVE RANKINGS
U.S. News & World Report
2007 EDITION
America’s Best GRADUATE SCHOOLS
Business • Law • Medicine
Education • Engineering • And More

PACE UNIVERSITY AND THE LUBIN SCHOOL OF BUSINESS
The Lubin School of Business, one of six schools within Pace University, is accredited for both business and accounting by AACSB International - The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business, the premier accreditation organization for business schools in the world. Fewer than three percent of business schools internationally have this dual accreditation from AACSB. A recognized leader in business education, our mission is to educate students in a personalized academic environment for success in business by applying contemporary theory to professional practice.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION
• In U.S. News & World Report’s “America’s Best Graduate Schools 2007” survey, Lubin’s part-time MBA program ranks 20th nationwide. Lubin has consistently ranked among the top 20 programs nationwide for several years.
• Pace University is named one of the top 100 Entrepreneurial Colleges and Universities in the United States in Entrepreneur magazine edition for its entrepreneurship program at the Lubin School of Business. For all three years of the survey, Pace’s Lubin School has been ranked as one of the top 100 entrepreneurship schools and one of the top 50 regional schools.
• Bauer’s Accounting Report ranks Pace, with 112 partners in the Big Four accounting firms, 17th nationwide among schools with alumni partners in these firms.

PROGRAMS
• MBA, Executive MBA, MS, DPS: Dual degrees (BA or BS/ MBA, MBA/MS), JD/MBA and certificates can be earned.

EXECUTIVE MBA, EMBA@PACE FOR EXECUTIVES
• Lubin’s Executive MBA (EMBA@PACE) is a two-year degree program designed for experienced managers and professionals. The curriculum takes an innovative cross-disciplinary approach to solving complex business problems by linking business theory to real-world projects. Students are professionals and work in teams as a cohort benefiting from the comprehensive experience of the group. Internet learning is interspersed with quarterly long weekend residencies at Pace’s downtown location in the Wall Street area.

FACULTY
• Composed of accomplished practitioners and noted scholars, not teaching assistants.

LEARNING ENVIRONMENT
• Widely recognized for success in teaching students how to apply theory to practice, our graduates hit the ground running with skills that employers value.
• Small classes are offered in modern facilities, including a state-of-the-art Global Portfolio Analysis Center, multimedia classrooms and accounting and marketing labs.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES
• Lubin’s Executive in Residence program draws on the school’s close links with the business community to bring business leaders to campus from such major corporations as Barnes & Noble.com, DDB Worldwide Communications Group Inc., Dow Jones and Company, FreshDirect, Hearst Magazines, IBM, Ingersoll-Rand, JPMorgan Chase & Co., KPMG, the New York Stock Exchange, Oreck Corporation, Pfizer, Inc., PricewaterhouseCoopers, Texaco, Tiffany & Co., U.S. RE Corporation, and Vera Wang.

ALUMNI
• Lubin alumni include such distinguished executives as Daniel Davis, president, The History Channel; Herbert L. Henkel, chairman, president and CEO, Ingersoll-Rand Company Limited; Melvin Karmazin, CEO, Sirius Satellite Radio; James Quinn, president, Tiffany & Co.; Ivan G. Seldenberg, chairman and CEO, Verizon; Marie J. Toulet, CEO, Barnes&Noble.com; and Richard Zannino, CEO, Dow Jones & Company.

LOCATION
• Lubin is the only leading business school with multi-campus locations in the Wall Street area. Midtown Manhattan and Westchester County providing opportunities for internships, networking and interaction with business leaders.

METHODOLOGY
The specialty rankings are based solely on reputation.

www.pace.edu/lubin