Charles Abbinanti joined the Pace University family in September 2003 when he enrolled in the Lubin School of Business. Since then he has completed 46 credits towards a dual MBA in Marketing Management and Financial Management and plans to graduate in May 2006. In September 2003 Charles also began working as a Graduate Assistant in the Lubin School’s department of Communications and External Relations. In May 2004, Charles moved to the Department of Government and Community Relations where he currently holds the title of Staff Associate. In this position Charles has worked to increase the University’s image and identity by interacting with Senator Hilary Clinton, Senator John Kerry, Governor George Pataki, Attorney General Elliot Spitzer and other public officials.

Before Pace University Charles attended Boston College and graduated with a B.S. in biology. While at Boston College he worked as a Business Development Intern at Vertex Pharmaceuticals and was a member of the Varsity Cross Country and Track teams. He also held the position of co-chair for the Senior Class Gift Committee. Under his leadership the committee raised a record $70,000 by implementing innovative and creative programs.
