TRAVEL COURSE TO CUBA
Spring Break
March 6 - 15

INT 196N - CUBA: The Ongoing Revolution:
Cultural and Philosophical Issues
6 credits

Fulfills PHI 110 exploratory and SPA 150 exploratory & enhancement Core

This Travel Learning Community examines the cultural, historical, literary and philosophical issues in Cuba, specifically, issues of social justice and economic distribution, human rights, freedom of expression and the extension of the Cuban revolution to ecological concerns, i.e. the relationship between humans and the natural environment.

Video-Conferenced between New York and Pleasantville

Class Meeting Dates: 1/28, 2/4, 2/18, 2/25, 3/25, 4/1, 4/8, 4/15, 4/22

Approximate Cost of Trip - $2,100

For Further Information:
Dr. Betty Torrance, Modern Languages & Cultures, ext. 3948, btorrance@pace.edu
Dr. Robert Chapman, Philosophy & Religious Studies, ext. 1364, rchapman@pace.edu