DEFERRED EXAMS

Students are permitted to take a deferred examination with the approval of their instructor for compelling reasons only, such as illness, emergencies, or other exceptional circumstances. Students who have a sufficient reason to request a deferred examination are required to complete a deferred examination application form and have it approved by their instructor. If the instructor is not available, students should contact the appropriate academic department for assistance. Eligible students are then required to submit the approved form to the SARS office and pay a fee of $30.00 for one exam or $60.00 for two or more exams. The filenode and examination dates are as follows:
