Pace in SPAIN!

Travel Dates → May 23 to June 22, 2003

Don’t miss this unique opportunity to study abroad in Segovia, Spain, which has been declared a “World Heritage of Humanity City” by the United Nations. Live with a local host family while studying the Spanish language, history and culture. The cost of tuition is included in the Spring 2003 full-time flat rate; part-time students pay for 3 credits. The special course fee of $2,500/person will cover airfare, accommodations, most meals, excursions, insurance and incidentals. A deposit of $500 is due by December 13th and attendance at orientation sessions on February 21st and April 25th is required.

STUDENTS MUST ENROLL IN ONE OF THE FOLLOWING DURING THE SPRING 2003 SEMESTER:

SPA 283 – Intermediate Conversation/Taught in Spanish
   (NYC CRN #49922 / PLV CRN #48042)
SPA 312 – Cultural Field Studies in Spain/Taught in Spanish
   (NYC CRN #49906 / PLV CRN #48084)

Please note that you must be an undergraduate with at least a 2.5 QPA. If you are unsure of your language placement, please consult with the Modern Languages Department.
