SPA 150A    Topic: Culture of Spain and Portugal---3 crs. CRN: 43506    Day NY   M 10:10-12:10
Taught by: Drs. Lamartina-Lens and O’Sullivan

Trip Destination: Spain and Portugal.
Trip Fee: approximately $2000 this includes air fare, hotels, some meals and all excursions. $300 Dyson Travel Scholarship available for eligible students.

Pre-requisite: None. (Except intellectual thirst, cultural curiosity, and fun-loving!!!!!!) The course will be conducted in English.

This course will examine the history, literature, philosophy, and art of Spain and Portugal. We will survey the development of civilization in the Iberian Peninsula considering the impact of the ancient Romans, the Christian, Jewish and Muslim Middle Ages, the Age of Discovery, and Empire-Building, baroque Catholicism, the literary Golden Age, the struggles of the 19th and 20th centuries, and finally the incorporation of Spain and Portugal into today’s prosperous and democratic Europe. The class will travel to Spain and Portugal during Spring Break.

Nota bene: The travel portion of the course will be open to students in:
SPA 310-The Culture of Spain—3 crs. CRN: # 41844    M,T,R 11:15-12:10    Taught by Dr. Berardini

Pre-Requisite: 6 credits of intermediate Spanish along with the same intellectual, cultural and free-spirited passion noted above.