nation's leading kick-off returner with 51.4 yards per run-back, but did not finish with the NCAA minimum of returns to qualify.

Honorable Mention All-Americans included Tom Chisholm at wide receiver, Carlos Thompson at linebacker and Brian Holshek at defensive back.

Chisholm finished second on the Pace all-time receptions list with 181, second on the all-time list with 2,482 receiving yards and third with 16 receiving TDs. In 2001, he caught 45 passes for 597 yards and five TDs.

Thompson led the team with 106 tackles and was named NE-10 All-Conference, Hansen Gazette Player of the Week and NE-10 Weekly Honor Roll five times. Holshek raised some eyebrows with his performance and, in addition to being named All-American, was named All-Conference and All-ECAC. Holshek averaged 20.3 yards per kick return, recorded 53 tackles on defense, eight pass deflections, one INT for a 100-yard INT return and forced a fumble.

Junior QB Jamie Reed threw for 1,069 yards and nine TDs, going 80-for-162 with 12 INTs. His longest TD was an 84-yard strike to Larry Piediscalzo.

The Pace University women's tennis program has been one of the most successful programs in the region for the past 20 years. The 2001 season marked the first time in the past 12 years that the Setters did not win the regular season title or post-season tournament in their respective conference.

Talented freshman Amanda Sammataro (Westley, RI) went 11-1 in fourth and fifth singles and a 8-4 record in first and second doubles. Brealey finished fifth on the Pace all-time list with 12 consecutive singles victories, spanning two seasons. Earning the #2 seed in the post-season tournament was not a kind situation for the next three.

Senior Stephanie Brealey (Costa Rica) finished her final season with a 9-4 mark in second and third singles and an 8-4 record in first and second doubles.
