STAFF MOVES

Rich Corsetti returned to Pace to coach the men’s and women’s tennis teams. Corsetti was the men’s tennis coach at Pace from 1984 to 1999.

Eddie Evans has assumed head coaching responsibilities of the Pace track and field team. Evans replaced Packie Mulvany, who resigned to accept an assistant principal job after the cross country season. Evans is also an assistant for the Pace women’s soccer team.

Tanya Yavarow was named the Assistant Trainer prior to the fall. Yavarow has been an assistant coach for the Pace women’s soccer and softball teams since 2000.

ALUMNI CONNECTION

Stay in touch with your classmates via the Internet. Participate in the Pace Alumni Online Community, a FREE and SECURE online service for all Pace alumni, at www.pace.edu/alumnicommunity.

Key features include a complete online directory, permanent e-mail forwarding, message boards and more.

GOLF 2001 RECAP

Head Coach Judy Carlson has developed the Pace University men’s golf program into a force to be reckoned with. Starting nearly from scratch in 2000-01, Carlson began to generate interest in the program among students already attending Pace. Now, prospective student-athletes are calling her.

The men’s golf squad, in only their second season of play as a full team, went undefeated in dual matches last fall, finishing with a 6-0 record.

Freshman Tom Chuaypradit (Yonkers, NY) led the team with two Low Medalist finishes. He posted a personal-best 74 on Oct. 2, shot a first-round 75 on Oct. 27 at the STAC Invitational where he earned Low Medalist and earned Low Medalist honors after shooting a 79 on Oct. 23 against Queens.

James McCormick (Pleasantville, NY) also had a fine season. He shot a personal-best 75 on Oct. 11 vs. Nyack and rounds of 79 at the NE-10 Championships and at the STAC Invitational.

Dan Phelan (New Paltz, NY) came into the clubhouse for a personal-record 80 in a win over Adelphi on Oct. 16 and posted an 81 and 83 to tie for the team-best at the NE-10 Championships.

Arjun Talwalker’s (Jersey City, NJ) season was highlighted by a second-round 77 at the NE-10 Championships, but a first-round 95 took him out of the running for the individual title. A second-year team member, Talwalker was consistently in the low- to mid-80s and shot 81 twice, against Adelphi and St. Rose.

EQUESTRIAN 2001 RECAP

The Pace University equestrian team, under the direction of Coach Tracey Villaverde, had a great fall season. One of the bright spots was the Setters’ Team High Point Award for the Nov. 10 show at Centenary College, beating out the hosts and the U.S. Military Academy.

Dominique Joyce (Kinnelon, NJ) came in first place three times in Intermediate Fences and won the Intermediate Flat Class once and tied for High Point Rider at the Oct. 21 show at Briarwood Farm.

Kristen Lienhop (Brewey, NY) came in first place twice in Advanced Walk-Trot-Canter Flat Class and placed second once during the fall. Sarah Hagberg (Sonoma, CA) placed first in Open Fences to help Pace win the Nov. 10 show at Centenary. Jessica Ponti (Washingtonville, NY) posted two first place finishes in Intermediate Fences and a first place showing in Intermediate Flat Class while managing two third place awards in Open Flat and Intermediate Fences.

Jamie Walsh (Riverhead, NY) had some respectable showings, including a second place in Intermediate Flat on Nov. 10 and a second in Intermediate Fences on Oct. 14 at the USMA show.

At the 2001 Fall Regionals, Pace posted a second place finish, two thirds, two fourth places, two fifths, and three sixth place showings. The Setters also participate in the spring season.

The Setters will play more than 10 matches in the spring, but the fall remains as the NE-10 championship season.